

PelletsExpress™ Bulk Wood Pellet Delivery

Lots of customer are asking questions about our new bulk delivery program and want to know how it compares to regular old bagged pellets that you pick up at our store.

The pellets are certainly no different, that's for sure. The difference really is up to you and how you like to manage your pellet fuel supply. Some still like the bagged pellets, others have jumped right on the bulk delivery program, but truthfully it's a personal decision as to which one to pick.

The wood pellets are shot right from the PelletsExpress™ truck into the bulk storage sack right inside your garage, basement, etc with no mess and no fuss.

If this is the first time you are getting bulk pellets, you'll get a free storage sack for each ton you buy. This is a limited time offer!
